

The 13 Most Hotly Anticipated Hotel Openings of the Fall

From an art-drenched spot in Milan to one of Costa Rica's first tented camps, these hotels making fall debuts don't disappoint.

Before you begin to plan your fall and winter vacations, take note: there are a about to be a whole slew of new hotels for you to consider. From 11-room hideaways and posh beach resorts to luxe safari lodges, these sleek new properties are getting ready to open their doors this season, in destinations from the Caribbean to Italy to Zambia and beyond. Read on to see the 13 spots we're most excited to welcome to the world. (Note that opening dates are subject to change.)

Galleria Vik Milano

Photo courtesy of Galleria Vik Milano

Photo: Courtesy of Galleria Vik Milano

Where: Milan, Italy

Opening: Fall 2019

Hospitality innovators Alex and Carrie Vik are bringing their unique vision to a city for the first time—and it's also their first foray outside South America. Galleria Vik Milano is housed within the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, one of Italy's most iconic landmarks. Carrie and Alex have entirely reimagined the interiors, and as with all Vik Retreats, art and design will play a major role in the hotel, starting at reception, where guests are welcomed by an immersive dry fresco by Italian artist Alex Folla that spans the ceiling and walls. The hotel has 90 distinctly designed suites, each showcasing remarkable décor, views, and art; the latter includes site-specific installations by Uruguayan, Italian, and international artists. Along with the signature gourmet restaurant, Vikissimo, there the Spotto courtyard restaurant serving light bites paired with cocktails and wines from the VIK wineries in Chile.